

Our goal at Tanner's is to provide all of our students with an exemplary sewing education! Your child will be learning in a professional sewing environment with professional equipment such as sewing machines and irons. Use of this equipment is monitored at all times, and proper safety methods are taught without fail. For the safety of your child and others please review the following policies regarding enrollment. Once you have read the following information, please sign, date and return the registration form prior to the first session in which your child will be participating. No class registration will be considered complete and/or final, nor will any child be allowed to participate in the Kids/ Teen classes or camps at Tanner's prior to receipt of this signed release. Please understand that Tanner's makes no exceptions to the following conditions. Materials fee are paid directly to instructor. Children must bring a snack and wear closed toe shoes. No visitors please

1. Only a parent or legally recognized guardian may register a child for the Kids/Teens classes or camps.
2. Participation in the Tanner's classes or camps is solely at the risk and liability of the parent or legal guardian enrolling the child.
3. Due to the potentially dangerous nature of sewing equipment and tools, it is the responsibility of the registering parent or guardian to ensure the proper placement of the child with regard to the child's skill level. Tanner's and its employees cannot accept liability for any injury or damages that you or your child may suffer related to premises of Tanner's or participation in activities sponsored by Tanner's. Every effort will be made by Tanner's and its employees/staff to ensure the safety of your child while on the premises Tanner's.
4. If an emergency or illness occurs while your child is on the premises of Tanner's and the Tanner's staff determines that the situation is life threatening or otherwise potentially hazardous to your child, your child's health, other children or any property, we may escort the child from the premises of the building. We may at that time request any personal, governmental or professional assistance that is deemed necessary to protect the welfare of the child. Every effort will be made to contact the legal guardian first.
5. Tanner's staff may not administer any medication to any child. If the child has a pre-existing condition requiring or a need for prescribed medication, please ensure that the parent or guardian is able to satisfy these needs either prior to or after the day's session.
6. For the welfare of everyone, if your child is sick on a class day, please keep him or her home for the day. Every effort will be made to provide your child with the missed day's activities. Please call to make arrangements for scheduling a makeup session.
7. Please make arrangements to arrive no earlier than 10 minutes prior to the commencement of class, and to retrieve your child no later than the scheduled conclusion of class. Additionally, if your child is more than 20 minutes late (at the discretion of the instructor) for class, his or her participation in that day's session may be forfeited, and no refunds will be granted.
8. Any personal belongings of the enrolled child or the parent or guardian that enter the premises of Tanner's remain the sole responsibility of the child, parent, or guardian. Tanner's shall not be responsible for lost, stolen, or damaged property or belongings.
9. Reminder of Class Policy- We require pre-payment for all class registrations. Phone reservations are accepted with your credit card payment. A space will not be reserved until payment is received. Cancellations must be made at least 5 days before the first meeting of class to receive a refund. Classes not having minimum paid registration, 5 days before the first meeting may be canceled. Refunds or store credits will be made if the class is canceled by the instructor. We will do our best to notify students of cancellation at least 3 days prior to the class date. Make-up classes are given only in the event the instructor misses a class. Class materials are not included, unless otherwise noted in class description. A supply list is available when you register, please purchase your supplies prior to class. Classes at Tanners Sewing Center are specifically designed for our supplies and materials. We appreciate your purchases and thank you in advance for supporting our store.
